

Editing Services and Estimated Prices

Our author services provide language support to publish your research work at an affordable cost (refer to the following appendix). Our team of scientific editors and language experts will handle the editing and make sure that your article meets international publishing standards.

Guidelines for Editing

1. Manuscript will be revised to meet the English language requirements of your target journal.
2. All the ethical guidelines will be followed in the manuscript.
3. In editing, if we suspect unethical practice in a submitted document or correspondence, we will point it out and explain it.
4. Maximum five pages can be reserved for references after reference formatting
5. Figures and tables are included in the manuscript near to the first citation.
6. Authors are recommended to include no more than 5 tables and no more than 8 figures per article. Please note that additional tables and figures beyond this soft limit can be charged the extra amount.
7. Color figures are included on a chargeable basis. Graphical abstract will not be counted as a figure and subjected to extra charge.
8. The mathematical equations should be clearly prepared and annotated if necessary.

We guarantee that your article will be free of grammatical, spelling and other common errors.
